Schools team up for Olympics

SPORTY pupils have been warming up for the summer's Olympic Games in energetic style.

The Year 6 classes from eight city primary schools teamed up for an Olympic Festival, which was held at Highlees Primary School, in Westwood, on Tuesday.

Climbing, archery and aeroball coaching sessions were run by the Outstanding Events Company, with help from Jack Hunt School students.

Highlees' headteacher Em Ward said: "The focus of the day was the Olympic values of equality, courage, friendship, determination, inspiration, respect and excellence."
